Editor-in-Chief , 4OR.

Dear Sir,

Recently I have received a letter from Mathematical Reviews in which the following article is given.

Bouyssou, Denis, Martello, Silvano and Plastria, Frank, Plagiarism again: Sreenivas and Srinivas, with an update on Marcu, 4OR 7 920090, no.1, 17-20; MR2496273,

I would like to bring the following facts to your kind notice.

From the letter only I came to know that some bad things happened in 2007 without my knowledge and my name was included in the papers of M.Sreenivas, a student of O.R. and working in Business Management. He communicated some papers on O.R. and corresponded every thing by including my name without my notice. After receiving the above said letter, I called him, and asked about issue, and then he said I am sorry Sir, and he is saying that after 2007 he has not done any such type of mistakes.

Also I would like to clarify that I have been working in Algebra but not in O.R. and I had no idea about O.R. Now the damage has already done to me and it is a good lesson to me. So with this incident, I take the opportunity to convey my heartfelt apologies to the academicians of O.R. and the editors of the Journal.

I am very sorry for the inconvenience caused.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully
